

Winter firefighting solar container training

In this video we take you on an exclusive tour of our 10-year-old fire training facility we built from 6 shipping containers! We also cover important points, like why porous building materials are ...

Our specialized thermal linings and ventilation systems allow you to include a variety of training technologies that challenge trainees at different skill levels, all in the same container set-up.

ICS Australia manufactures portable fire extinguisher training trays for RTOs and government agencies. We can supply training props from our minipan tray up to shipping container-based fire simulators.

Container-based props can be customized to simulate residential, commercial, and industrial fire situations, providing diverse training environments. These props allow for controlled fire conditions, ...

Fire Training Container Structure This innovative fire training facility was constructed entirely from shipping containers. The modular design features interconnected containers for diverse training ...

Our ISO shipping containers are modified and outfitted for repeated live fire training. Container comes on chassis to be mobile, and designed for fire professionals to experience different fire ...

Winter
training

firefighting

solar

container

Web: <https://lpsolar.co.za>

